SENATOR CUDABACK: ...amendment to the bill.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: I'd like to give the...

SENATOR CUDABACK: Excuse me.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: ...remaining time to Senator Janssen, if I may.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Excuse me, Senator. Senator Janssen.

SENATOR JANSSEN: Thank you, Senator Wehrbein, and, Senator Cudaback, thank you. I believe that a temporary employee, Senator Schimek, if I'm right, is someone who has worked at least 6 months and at least 20 hours a week. Senator Schimek, could you respond to that?

SENATOR SCHIMEK: You mean to receive the benefits.

SENATOR JANSSEN: Yes.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: It's my understanding that it has to have been for one year.

SENATOR JANSSEN: They have to be employed for one year?

SENATOR CUDABACK: Would you speak into the mike, Senator Janssen, please?

SENATOR SCHIMEK: Do they...that is my understanding from what...what I have just been told by the lobby, but we're getting absolute verification of that.

SENATOR JANSSEN: Okay. All right. All right. While they're getting that verification, I remember hearing the bills in the committee and discussing the amendments and, to my knowledge, this is something that needs to be done. They do use the temporary employees quite extensively and to keep those on hand. Do you have the information now?

SENATOR SCHIMEK: Yes, you were right, it is six months. It is
